WESTMEAD

About Catherine McAuley

Perform the ordinary extraordinarily well

Catherine McAuley Westmead is a Catholic Girls' School established by the Sisters Of Mercy, Parramatta. Inspired by the founder of the Sisters of Mercy, we aspire to a God-Centred way of life, which respects and affirms the dignity of each person.

In embracing our Mercy heritage and charism, we:

- commit to excellence in girls' education
- empower young women to be actively involved in social justice
- value our diversity and inclusiveness
- build community through hospitality
- foster the development of the whole person

We commit ourselves to the vision of Venerable Catherine McAuley to perform the ordinary extraordinarily well.

'May God bless
and protect you
and make you the instrument of his glory'

Venerable Catherine McAuley

Principal's message

Catherine McAuley Westmead is a school founded in the Mercy tradition and the words of Catherine McAuley above, the foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, inspire us as educators to form our students both spiritually and academically.

McAuley girls are nurtured to be courageous young women who act compassionately to build community and who are alive with the mercy and justice of God. We are dedicated to fostering a commitment to excellence and lifelong learning in our students.

Throughout their time with us, we support and challenge our students to be open to new ideas and have the ability to make wise choices, as well as build a life that will be centred on contemplation and action, prayer and service.

As learners, McAuley girls are called to think critically and creatively and strive for excellence in all that they do.

As the principal of Catherine McAuley, I am excited and honoured to be part of such a dynamic community here at Westmead. I look forward to meeting our students' families and working alongside them to provide the best educational opportunities for their daughters.

Mary Refalo,
Principal.

Religious EDUCATION

Catherine McAuley follows the Parramatta Diocesan Religious Education Curriculum.

Girls in Years 11 and 12 can choose to study Studies of Religion I or II Unit, in which the school consistently achieves a high standard. In all years, Religious Education combines academic rigour with personal faith development.

The charism and heritage of Catherine McAuley lie at the very heart of our school. Religious Education is a formal part of the curriculum and our Catholic values underpin all aspects of school life. All students are encouraged to reflect on their personal spirituality and develop a mature understanding and appreciation of Catholic teaching and practice.

MERCY - act with compassion in all we do

‘God requires that we should be shining lamps giving light to all around us!’

Venerable Catherine McAuley

Spiritual life

Prayer has a special role in our daily activities and there are regular opportunities for weekday Mass, Reconciliation, Lenten devotions and the Rosary.

Throughout the year, members of the school community gather to celebrate our identity as members of a Christ-centred Mercy community, including:

- Opening School Mass
- Year Level Masses
- Ash Wednesday Liturgy
- Holy Thursday Liturgy
- The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Mercy Day Mass
- Year 12 Graduation Mass

Our school chaplain and local priests work closely with the school to provide for the ongoing spiritual needs of our students and families. Retreats and reflection days form a significant part of each girl’s spiritual growth, culminating in a three-day residential retreat for senior students.

We seek to develop in our students an awareness of those in need and encourage active involvement in social justice initiatives, such as:

- Mercy projects undertaken by our Mercy Action Group
- Caritas Australia's Project Compassion
- St Vincent de Paul Society
- Mercy Works
- Catholic Care
- Jesuit Refugee Service

Excellence

STRIVE FOR OUR PERSONAL BEST

It's not just what students learn at school that's important, it's also how they learn.

Innovative Learning and Teaching

Our approach to learning prioritises the skills required for young women to actively participate in a dynamic world as autonomous lifelong learners who are connected, adaptable, discerning and articulate. We know that 21st century skills enable young women to collaborate, communicate and think critically and we apply the development of these skills to our learning. The learning and teaching strategies we employ are responsive to the needs of our diverse learners. These strategies include:

- Diverse curriculum offerings including Science, Technology, Engineering and Maths (STEM)
- Focus on literacy and communication as a means to learn and engage with the real world
- Comprehensive academic care structure
- Flexible learning spaces
- 21st Century learning environment
- Extensive extracurricular program
- Community partnerships

Integrity Pastoral Care

Catherine McAuley's Pastoral Care Program complements our learning and teaching strategies to provide academic care for all students.

The core Mercy Values of mercy, justice, excellence, integrity, courage and hospitality are the foundation for an environment where right relationships are established and the spiritual and emotional wellbeing of the young women in our care is nurtured.

Complementing our academic program, the pastoral care program supports and encourages the development of each student through:

- House, Liturgy and Social Justice committees
- Student Representative Council
- Peer support
- Individual guidance and counselling
- Youth Forums
- Peer Tutoring
- Seminars addressing current issues
- Merit system

All students belong to a house based homeroom group which meets each day. This enables the interaction and participation of each student and teacher in a personal environment. Year and House groups meet on a regular basis to acknowledge and affirm students' achievements. Pastoral care programs at each year level are designed to help build resilience, independence and courage within each girl.
